

Choice Hotels Appoints Chief Information Officer

PRNewswire
SILVER SPRING, Md.

Choice Hotels International, Inc. today announced the appointment of Gary Thomson as senior vice president and chief information officer, effective immediately. Thomson, 46, previously was vice president, information systems technologies, for the hotel franchising company.

"Since joining Choice in 1992, Gary has led the transformation of our various systems and the development of our Internet and web technology," said Charles A. Ledsinger, Jr., president and chief executive officer. "He has played a major role in the creation and rollout of successful technologies to support our hotel property management system, interfaces with global distribution systems, our reservations support system and our Guest Privileges frequent guest program."

In his new role, Thomson will have overall responsibility for all information systems design development and technology. He will report directly to Ledsinger.

Prior to joining Choice, he spent 11 years with AT&T Bell Laboratories in various technical and management positions. A 1980 graduate of the University of Memphis with a degree in electrical engineering, he began his career as a design engineer with Stromberg-Carlson, a telephone systems manufacturer.

Choice Hotels International is the second largest hotel franchiser in the world with 4,303 hotels open, representing 343,511 rooms, and another 685 hotels under development, representing 58,191 rooms, in 39 countries as of June 30, 2000. Its Comfort, Quality, Clarion, Sleep Inn, Econo Lodge, Rodeway Inn and MainStay Suites brands serve guests worldwide.
