

DISH Network Offers 99 Cent Movies in Celebration of Independence Day

Includes "Sucker Punch" and "Hall Pass" Available on DISH Cinema Nearly One Month Before Netflix and Redbox

DISH Network L.L.C., a subsidiary of DISH Network Corporation (NASDAQ: DISH), today announced some of the year's hottest movies will be available for 99 cents on DISH Cinema. In celebration of the Independence Day holiday, from July 1 through July 7, DISH Network customers can enjoy five hit movies including the visually stunning "Sucker Punch" and the Farrelly Brothers' "Hall Pass" – both available nearly one month before Netflix and redbox – as well as Academy Award nominee for Best Picture, "True Grit," alien-action thriller "Battle: Los Angeles," and the Jennifer Aniston and Adam Sandler romantic comedy "Just Go With It" in standard or high definition.

"Offering the latest Hollywood hits for just 99 cents – a cost savings of up to $6 – is just another example of how DISH Network provides customers with an unmatched in-home movie experience at the best value," said Dave Shull, senior vice president of Programming for DISH Network. "We are pleased to continue raising the bar by offering titles such as 'Sucker Punch' and 'Hall Pass' several weeks before they are available on Netflix and redbox."

DISH Cinema offers customers instant access to thousands of movies and TV shows in SD, HD or 1080p resolution comparable to Blu-Ray disc. New titles are added weekly with many available on the same day as the DVD release and nearly a month before they can be rented through Netflix and redbox. Subscribers can order DISH Cinema movies by tuning to Channels 501 – 558, by visiting www.DISHCinema.com, or by calling 1-877-DISH-PPV.
