Amateur, Elite And Professional Triathletes Descend Upon Twin Cities For 2011 Life Time Fitness Triathlon

Life Time Fitness (NYSE: LTM), the Healthy Way of Life Company, will welcome more than 3,500 amateur and elite triathletes—including 27 of the world's top professional triathletes—to the 2011 Life Time Minneapolis Triathlon July 9. Part of the 2011 Life Time Triathlon Series, this event will celebrate its 10th year and will serve as the fourth leg in theRace to the Toyota Cup.

The Life Time Minneapolis Triathlon begins and ends at Minneapolis' Lake Nokomis. The bike course navigates along the iconic Mississippi River and 'City of Lakes' before returning to the Lake Nokomis transition area. The event concludes with a run around Lake Nokomis to the cheers of thousands of spectators.

The female and male division winners each will take home $12,500. In addition to cash prizes, the top female and male finisher each will earn 10 points toward their pursuit of the coveted Toyota Cup. Premiums totaling $5,000 also will be awarded for the fastest swim, bike and run in each event for both men and women.

The Series' total professional division cash purse includes $584,000 in individual race awards. In addition, a 2011 Toyota vehicle and the coveted Toyota Cup will be awarded to the top female and male champions at the Toyota U.S. Open Triathlon in Dallas which serves as the Series finale championship Oct. 2, 2011.
