Top Finishers At The Leadville Silver Rush 50 Mtb Race And 50 Trail Run

A field of more than 1,000 runners and cyclists competed in the Silver Rush 50 MTB Race and 50 Trail Run July 16-17. The same course is used for the bike and the run and it is one of the most challenging courses in the world. The course navigates 50 miles of extreme terrain that starts at an elevation of 10,200 feet and climbs to 12,000 feet four times.

Competing against a strong field of cyclists in the 50 MTB race, Laurie Brandt (Montrose Colo.) took first place in the women's division at 5:09:00 and Alexander Hagman (Fort Collins, Colo.) took first place in the men's division at 3:58:57.

In the 50 Trail Run, Helen Cospolich (Breckenridge, Colo.) placed first in the women's division at 8:06:33. In the men's division, Craig Howie (Casper, Wyo.) placed first in the men's division at 7:05:08.

Thirty competitors completed both races, earning the coveted Silver King and Queen awards – Joseph Berg (Littleton, Colo.) was the fastest overall male at 12:20:19 (4:37:45 bike and 7:42:34 run), while Beth Gouge (Colorado Springs, Colo.) was the fastest overall female at 18:27:50 (6:26:35 bike and 12:01:15 run).

Both Silver Rush events began at the Cloud City Ski Hut and led participants through the historic mining district's challenging mining roads and trails. For more information on all Leadville races, visit www.leadvilleraceseries.com.
