

Life Time to Offer Standing, Preferred Military Initiation Fees

Active, retired military and veterans to receive preferred initiation fees at destinations throughout the US and Canada

CHANHASSEN, Minn., May 27, 2019 /PRNewswire/ -- Life Time, the premier healthy lifestyle brand, today announced a nationwide military offer, honoring men and women committed to serving our country through the armed forces. Life Time's military offer will extend to all active and retired military, as well as all veterans including Reserve and National Guard, granting 50% off standard initiation fees. The offer will also extend to the company's clubs in Canada and Canadian armed forces.

"We are pleased to extend a preferred offer to all military personnel and family members in their immediate household in recognition of their honorable service to their country," says Life Time Chief Operations Officer Jeff Zwiefel.

Since its launch in 1992, Life Time has long been committed to serving the healthy lifestyle needs of the communities in which it operates. To take advantage of the military offer, personnel must bring a valid form of military ID or DD Form 214. For more information on Life Time's military offer, please visit a Life Time near you.
