

Matt Chrabot Wins, Sarah Haskins Three-Peats at 2011 Life Time Chicago Triathlon

CHICAGO--(BUSINESS WIRE)--More than 7,500 Olympic, paratriathlon, elite amateur and first-time triathletes competed in one of the world's largest triathlons on August 28 along Chicago's scenic lakefront. This year marked the 29th anniversary of the event and served as the fifth leg in the Race to the Toyota Cup.

Sarah Haskins (Colorado Springs, Colo.) won the female professional division at 2:02:05, while Matt Chrabot (Colorado Springs, Colo.) won the male professional division at 1:50:29. Haskins is the only woman in Chicago Triathlon history to win three consecutive times.

In the female professional division, Alicia Kaye (Maynard, Mass.) finished second with a time of 2:04:42, while Jillian Petersen (Colorado Springs, Colo.) finished third with a time of 2:05:31. In the male professional division, Greg Bennett (Boulder, Colo.) finished second with a time of 1:50:30, followed by third-place finisher Paul Matthews (Casuarina, NSW) with a time of 1:50:50.

Launched in 1982, the Chicago Triathlon is internationally renowned by professional, elite and amateur triathletes alike for its beautiful course. The event begins in Monroe Harbor and is one of the only days of the year that lanes along Lake Shore Drive are exclusively reserved for cyclists. The event concludes with a finish line on Columbus Drive in Grant Park.
