

American Water Charitable Foundation and American Water Military Services Group Continue Partnership with American Red Cross Service to the Armed Forces Giving Program

Foundation donates $15,000 to support military and veteran families

CAMDEN, N.J. – NOVEMBER 7, 2024 – The American Water Charitable Foundation, a 501(c)(3) organization established by American Water (NYSE: AWK), the largest regulated water and wastewater utility company in the U.S., and American Water’s Military Services Group, announced today that the Foundation awarded a $15,000 State Strategic Impact grant to the American Red Cross, Service to the Armed Forces Giving Program, in support of military members, veterans and families as they prepare for and respond to the challenges of military service.

“Support from partners like the American Water Charitable Foundation enables the Red Cross to quickly assist military members and their families. We are very grateful for this generous donation as we work together to provide a full spectrum of support services for our military community and veterans each and every day,” said Rosie Taravella, CEO, American Red Cross New Jersey Region.

The American Red Cross supports our heroes through countless challenges throughout their military journey and beyond. It is also the only organization congressionally chartered to keep military members and their families connected during personal emergencies.

“The American Water Charitable Foundation is proud to partner with the American Red Cross in support of our nation’s heroes,” said Carrie Williams, President, American Water Charitable Foundation. “This grant will help provide vital services and support to military personnel during and after their service.”

The State Strategic Impact grant is part of the 2024 Keep Communities Flowing Grant Program, focusing on three pillars of giving: Water, People and Communities. State Strategic Impact grants support high-impact projects and initiatives throughout American Water’s national footprint.

“American Water’s Military Services Group is honored to join forces with the American Water Charitable Foundation in supporting our veteran and military community,” said Sean Wheatley, President, American Water Military Services Group. “This partnership reinforces our daily mission to provide safe and reliable water and wastewater services to service members and their families on 18 military installations across the U.S.”
