

Illinois American Water Celebrates 50 Years of the Safe Drinking Water Act

Belleville, Ill. – DECEMBER 16, 2024 – Illinois American Water, a subsidiary of American Water (NYSE: AWK), the largest regulated water and wastewater utility company in the U.S., is proud to join the water industry in celebrating the 50th anniversary of the Safe Drinking Water Act (SDWA), the landmark law that has safeguarded public health by protecting drinking water quality since its passage on December 16, 1974.

Brian Eisenloeffel, vice president of operations for Illinois American Water, reflects “The Safe Drinking Water Act has safeguarded public health for 50 years, promoting access to clean, reliable water – a cornerstone of the service we provide to several communities across the state. Its legacy reminds us that protecting our water resources is vital to protecting our water systems for generations to come.”

Illinois American Water recognizes the SDWA's 50-year impact on water quality and emphasizes the need for continued investment to address emerging challenges in water safety and quality. The company expects to invest $557 million in capital investments in 2024 and 2025. This investment aligns with the spirit of the Safe Drinking Water Act and its mission to safeguard public health for American Water customers and communities across the nation.

American Water launched a 50-day countdown to the SDWA anniversary. View the highlights here.
