

Boil Water Order Lifted in Village of Leonore

Illinois American Water has lifted the boil water order in the Village of Leonore. The boil water order was issued Saturday night, Dec. 15 due to a water main break. Tests taken this week have confirmed that the drinking water in Leonore meets all regulated quality standards.

“We appreciate the patience and understanding shown by our customers in Leonore during the boil water order,” said Holly Hunt, Operations Superintendent, Streator District. “I also appreciate the work by our employees to restore water service promptly for impacted customers last weekend.”

About American Water

American Water (NYSE: AWK) is the largest regulated water and wastewater utility company in the United States. With a history dating back to 1886, We Keep Life Flowing® by providing safe, clean, reliable and affordable drinking water and wastewater services to more than 14 million people with regulated operations in 14 states and on 18 military installations. American Water’s 6,500 talented professionals leverage their significant expertise and the company’s national size and scale to achieve excellent outcomes for the benefit of customers, employees, investors and other stakeholders.

For more information, visit amwater.com and join American Water on LinkedIn, Facebook, X and Instagram.

About Illinois American Water

Illinois American Water, a subsidiary of American Water (NYSE: AWK), is the largest regulated water utility in the state, providing high-quality and reliable water and wastewater services to approximately 1.4 million people. American Water also operates a quality control and research laboratory in Belleville.

Media Contacts

Terry Mackin

Director of Communications and External Affairs

NA

terry.mackin@amwater.com

<https://stage.mediaroom.com/amwater/2024-12-19-Boil-Water-Order-Lifted-in-Village-of-Leonore>