

The Biggest April Fools' Joke? An Overpriced Phone Plan

It's a tale as old as time – every month, you receive your phone bill from your network provider, and you can't help but laugh (or maybe cry) and think, "This must be a joke!" Hidden fees, skyrocketing rates and charges for services you barely use make it feel like your provider is playing the ultimate April Fools' prank on you.

At Boost Mobile, we believe the only surprises you should experience are fun ones – not shocking bills. That's why we're all about transparent, affordable pricing with no hidden fees or price increases. Whether you need unlimited talk, text and data, or just a simple plan that fits your budget, we've got you covered.

Check out some of these incredible deals available now:

$15/month for 3 months with Boost Mobile Unlimited Data plan, then $25/month FOREVER

iPhone 13 for just $149 when you buy the Unlimited Premium Data plan for just $60/month

6 months FREE of unlimited talk, text, and data when you buy 6 months on the Unlimited Plus Data plan

Get $1,000 of iPhone 16 and the latest iPhone every year ON US with the Infinite Access for iPhone plan for just $65/month

The trick? There is no trick! Why overpay for the same service when you can get a better deal with Boost Mobile. With 99% national coverage, we make sure you stay connected wherever you are, without breaking the bank.

This April, don't let your wireless provider prank you with overpriced phone plans. Switch to Boost Mobile and start saving today. Because when it comes to wireless service, the biggest joke is paying too much.
