For a limited time¹, new and existing Boost customers can get the Celero 5G for just $139.99, 50% off its suggested retail price on boostmobile.com. The launch deal also includes a free specially-designed phone case while supplies last².

"We're extremely pleased with the Celero 5G pre-order response, and to get them into the hands of even more people looking to take advantage of its power and speed, we wanted to do something special during this time of year," said Stephen Stokols, head of Boost Mobile. "This 50% off launch promotion underscores our belief that everyone should be able to experience all 5G has to offer."

Whether streaming, gaming, or accessing Boost's constantly expanding lineup of value-added services, the Celero 5G offers the power of choice for people who crave quality specs at a reasonable price. Sporting a sleek, premium form factor, the Celero 5G boasts a 6.5-inch screen, four cameras, 36 hours of battery life, and 4GB RAM/ 64GB ROM memory that's customizable with an SD card up to 2TB. Ideal for entertainment and productivity alike, the device's expansive screen offers brilliant views plus one-handed comfort. Triple rear cameras are fit for any scenario, from epic wide views to astonishing details. Customers will be able to remember every event and accomplishment with a high-quality camera—always in their pocket. The Celero 5G's long-lasting 4,000 mAh battery with 15W fast charging allows customers to stream, browse, share, and navigate all day long.

The Celero 5G supports Boost Mobile's value-added services, including 24/7 access to board certified doctors, the privacy bundle for encrypted WiFi, visual voicemail, and spam call blocking to protect mobile users' data. Celero 5G's exclusive release underlines Boost's commitment to placing power back in the hands of its customers.
