

Choice Hotels Names Michael Murphy Senior Vice President of Global Sales

PRNewswire-FirstCall
SILVER SPRING, Md.

Choice Hotels International, Inc. today announced that it has named Michael Murphy (47) senior vice president of global sales, where he will have responsibility for the company's worldwide sales and intermediary marketing efforts. Murphy has a track record of success in sales and marketing roles in a 25-year hospitality industry career, having most recently served as senior vice president of sales for Marriott International, Inc. In his new role, Murphy reports to Chris Malone, chief marketing officer.

"We are extremely pleased to add an executive of Michael's background and caliber to our organization in this most critical position," said Malone. "Michael will play a leading role in elevating Choice's global sales efforts as we continue to focus on delivering more business directly to Choice-branded hotels. Michael and his organization will also concentrate on helping our owners and operators take advantage of the many resources available to maximize property-level sales."

At Marriott, Murphy was responsible for the company's association, government, affinity and small business customer segments. Prior to joining Marriott, Michael advanced through several senior sales and marketing roles at Renaissance and Stouffer Hotels where he developed and implemented sales programs that delivered significant RevPAR growth over a multi-year period.

Given his deep experience and strong industry relationships, Murphy will serve as Choice's primary liaison with key travel industry associations and conferences, including National Business Travel Association (NBTA) and Meeting Planners International (MPI). He is also a member of the education foundation development committee of the Professional Convention Management Association (PCMA).

Murphy holds a BA in hospitality management from the Rochester Institute of Technology (RIT) School of Hotel Tourism Management. He is actively involved in a number of hospitality organizations and was recently appointed to RIT's International Hospitality Advisory Board.
