"We're so proud to work with John Lopez to bring our lifestyle brand to Oklahoma City," said Kevin J. Lewis, president, Cambria Suites. "This is an ideal location for Cambria Suites because of the proximity to the Will Rogers World Airport and local attractions."

Every Cambria Suites suite features separate work and living areas with ergonomic chairs, movable desks, luxury linens, and Bath and Body Works® products. The all-suites hotels offer the latest in technology, including a 52-inch television in the open, airy two-story lobby and each suite includes two flat-screen LCD televisions, and MP3 jacks. "I'm so proud to open our doors to the public," said Mr. Lopez. "Oklahoma City has a lot to offer to both business and leisure travelers, and we're thrilled to provide the comforts they don't necessarily expect to find while traveling. Besides, where else can you eat breakfast sitting next to a Ferrari?"

With a personal passion for antique and vintage cars, Lopez has added a unique car showroom to the property. To celebrate the opening, the hotel is currently displaying a 1985 Ferrari Testarossa European Model. The car, retailing at $225,000, is one of only 7,177 in the world, with a 4.7 liter F-12 engine and a top speed of 178.
