ROCKVILLE, Md., Nov. 6, 2019 /PRNewswire/ -- The Ascend Hotel Collection by Choice Hotels International, Inc. (NYSE: CHH) reached a significant milestone today with the opening of its 300th hotel worldwide on the renowned Massachusetts island of Martha's Vineyard: Edgar Hotel – Martha's Vineyard. Built in a classic Cape Cod style, the newly renovated Edgar Hotel – Martha's Vineyard is located at 227 Upper Main St., just a few blocks from the quaint New England town of Edgartown, which is rich in maritime history and full of boutique shops, restaurants, fishing piers and picturesque harbor views. The 41-room hotel is also a short drive to Katama Beach on the Atlantic Ocean and other Martha's Vineyard towns, including Oak Bluffs and Vineyard Haven, as well as popular attractions like the nation's oldest merry-go-round, the gingerbread cottages at Oak Bluffs Campground, "Jaws Bridge" where the iconic Jaws movie was filmed, and scenic bike trails.

"Ascend is known for providing guests with a one-of-a-kind upscale lodging experience to help satisfy their travel curiosity in new destinations.
