

Job Fair Set for Saturday, April 27

Land at CLT, Soar to New Heights

Charlotte Douglas International Airport, along with its tenants and partners, will host an Airport Job Fair from 9 a.m. to noon on Saturday, April 27, at Bojangles Coliseum, 2700 East Independence Blvd.

Hundreds of full- and part-time, seasonal and temporary positions are available from entry level to managerial. Participating employers include American Airlines, the Transportation Security Administration (TSA), HMSHost, Paradies Lagardère, City of Charlotte Aviation Department and various other city departments.

Recommended attire is business professional and onsite interviews and conditional offers may be available during the event. Attendees should bring multiple copies of their resumes.

Visit cltairport.com/careers to view current Aviation Department and other job openings and to watch videos about the benefits of working at CLT as described by Airport employees.

CLT is one of the largest employers in the Charlotte region, creating 151,575 jobs for North Carolina residents, according to the N.C. Department of Transportation. More than 20,000 people work for the Airport and its business partners.

As the seventh busiest airport worldwide for aircraft movements, CLT offers a wide range of employment opportunities, including airline, retail, food and beverage, security and customer service.
