

DISH Network Announces Convertible Notes Placement

ENGLEWOOD, Colo.-- March 10, 2017 -- (BUSINESS WIRE)--DISH Network Corporation ("DISH Network") (NASDAQ: DISH) today announced that it plans to issue and sell, subject to market and other conditions, $1 billion aggregate principal amount of convertible notes (the "notes"). The net proceeds of the placement are intended to be used for strategic transactions, which may include wireless and spectrum-related strategic transactions, and for other general corporate purposes.

The notes will be unsecured obligations of DISH Network. Upon any conversion, DISH Network will settle its conversion obligation in cash, shares of its Class A Common Stock, or a combination of cash and shares of its Class A Common Stock, at its election. The interest rate, the initial conversion rate, and other terms and conditions of the notes will be determined by negotiations between DISH Network and the purchasers of the notes.

The notes will only be offered and sold to institutional accredited investors that are also qualified institutional buyers on a private placement basis pursuant to Section 4(a)(2) of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the "Securities Act"). The notes and shares of DISH Network's Class A Common Stock issuable upon the conversion of the notes, if any, have not been and are not intended to be registered under the Securities Act or the securities laws of any other jurisdiction. The notes may not be offered or sold in the United States absent registration or an applicable exemption from registration requirements. This press release does not constitute an offer to sell or a solicitation of an offer to buy any of the notes; nor shall there be any sale of these notes in any state or jurisdiction in which such an offer, solicitation or sale would be unlawful.
