GAIN Capital's FOREX.com Receives Global Recognition

Provider of online trading services receives four awards for its service offering

LONDON, December 7, 2010 - GAIN Capital Holdings Inc., a global provider of online trading services specialising in foreign exchange (forex or FX) and contracts for difference (CFDs), announced today that its FOREX.com division received four awards for its retail offering in November 2010.

FOREX.com was voted: Best FX Platform at the 2010 Financial Times Investors Chronicle Investment Awards, and Best FX Broker at the Shares Awards 2010 in London; Best Retail Services Provider at the Middle East Online Trading Summit Awards 2010 in Dubai; and Best Forex Broker in the US at the Forex Expo Awards 2010 in Moscow.

"Receiving these recognitions is a testament to our ability to deliver a market leading service for retail forex traders globally. We will continue to focus on providing our clients with innovative tools and a world class customer experience," said Glenn Stevens, chief executive officer of GAIN Capital Holdings Inc.

The recent awards add to the numerous accolades the firm has received since its founding for product innovation, industry leadership, and corporate growth.
