

SmrtGuard Rolls Out New Consumer, Family and Small Business Plans for SmrtGuard Pro

PRINCETON, N.J., Sept. 20, 2011 /PRNewswire/ -- SmrtGuard (www.smrtguard.com), a mobile security software company, has unveiled new pricing plans targeting consumers, families and small businesses.

Following a two week market test conducted in early September, SmrtGuard is now offering all consumers a single-license plan for $2.49 per month or $17.99 per year. A new family plan, providing a year of coverage for up to three devices, is being introduced at $29.99 per year and a 20-device, small businesses license is now being offered at $199 per year.

SmrtGuard Pro provides protection for Android tablets, smartphones and laptops; iPhones and iPads; and BlackBerry phones and tablets.

"Consumers today are using smartphones and tablets for a variety of needs from personal to professional," said Robert Kao, founder and chief technology officer, SmrtGuard. "Offering a variety of pricing models allows us to meet different client needs, from a couple with their own smartphones and shared tablet, to a small company that wants to protect all of its employees' devices."
