

Emergent Capital to Sponsor & Present at 2nd Annual International Life Settlement Investor Conference in London, October 6, 2015

BOCA RATON, Fla., Sept. 29, 2015 /PRNewswire/ -- Emergent Capital, Inc. (NYSE: EMG) ("Emergent"), a specialty finance company that invests in esoteric asset classes, primarily life settlements, will be the silver sponsor at the 2nd Annual International Life Settlements Investor Conference to be held in London, on October 6, 2015.

The conference, coordinated by the European Life Settlement Association (ELSA) and the International Secondary Market for Life Insurance (BVZL), is a one-day event which brings together industry opinion leaders and investors to address the important issues facing the primary and secondary life settlements market in Europe, Germany and the United States.

Rory O'Connell, Emergent's chief financial officer and chief credit officer, will be among leading industry, political and research experts who will be participating in a series of panel discussions that will examine the life settlements markets from the investor, lender and reinsurer perspectives.

The 2nd Annual International Life Settlements Investor Conference will be held at the London office of Ernst & Young at 1 More London Place, London SE1 2AF.

For additional information and passes to the event, please visit: <http://www.elsa-sls.org/elsabvzl-announce-international-life-settlement-investor-conference-2015/>

About Emergent Capital, Inc.

Emergent Capital (NYSE: EMG) is a specialty finance company that invests in esoteric asset classes, primarily life settlements. More information about Emergent can be found at www.emergentcapital.com.

Logo - <http://photos.prnewswire.com/prnh/20150902/263203LOGO>

SOURCE Emergent Capital, Inc.
