

CELSIUS® Makes First-Time Appearance at the Natural Products Expo East Show

Debuts Natural Line Extension with Two New flavors

BOCA RATON, Fla., Sept. 13, 2017 /PRNewswire/ -- Celsius Holdings, Inc. (Nasdaq: CELH), makers of the leading fitness drink, CELSIUS®, today announced that two new flavors in its Natural Line extension will debut at the Natural Products Expo East Show in Baltimore, Maryland, September 14-16 (booth #8716). This is CELSIUS' first time attending Expo East, where it will show its complete Natural Line extension, comprised of six SKUs, including two delicious, new flavors: sparkling Orange Pomegranate and non-carbonated Strawberries and Cream. They join the existing flavor lineup of sparkling Grapefruit and Cucumber Lime and non-carbonated Pineapple Coconut and Watermelon Berry.

The Natural Line extension boasts a clean ingredient panel featuring 100 percent natural caffeine from green-coffee-bean extract and an all-natural sweetener. CELSIUS' proven, proprietary formula, MetaPlus®, accelerates metabolism and burns both body fat and calories while providing a healthy boost of energy. It does not contain any artificial ingredients or preservatives. This line of Ready-To-Drink products are non-GMO, kosher and vegan certified, soy, gluten and sugar-free.

Since it launched at Expo West in March 2017, and was subsequently introduced to the trade in April, the CELSIUS Natural Line extension has been rapidly accepted in all Sprouts and Fresh Market locations nationwide and through eight United Natural Foods (UNFI) warehouses, a leading national distributor of natural and organic foods throughout the U.S. The Natural Line extension is also available through a specialized distribution company that supplies the fitness channel.

"Landing distribution at these premier, national accounts so quickly after launch is a testament to the quality and appeal of our product and its proven functionality," says John Fieldly, Interim Chief Executive Officer and Chief Financial Officer. "We are bringing true innovation to the natural channel and consumers are responding – loud and clear. We just brought onboard a natural product specialist, Paula Burke, as our Director of Natural Accounts. Paula has deep experience in building natural brands and brings significant muscle to what has already been a fantastic start."

The current success of CELSIUS' existing product line in the natural channel demonstrates the intense consumer demand for CELSIUS among those who are dedicated to a healthy, active lifestyle. CELSIUS is well-positioned to meet the needs of savvy and health-conscious consumers who understand how CELSIUS differs from any other drink in its category.
