AUGSBURG, Germany and PARIS, May 15, 2024 – Algam Enterprise, a major distributor of professional sound, AV & control systems and video and lighting equipment has been named the exclusive distributor of ZeeVee's AV over IP (AVoIP) products in France, Monaco, Tunisia, Algeria and Morocco.

Part of Algam, the French privately owned group founded in 1971 and European leader in the distribution of musical instruments and audio equipment, Algam Enterprise has extensive experience in the AVoIP sector. It is a trusted partner for AV integrators, rental & staging companies, broadcasting companies and studios seeking the seamless integration of audiovisual technologies. Algam is headquartered in Thouaré-sur-Loire, France – in the northwestern portion of the country located 10 km from Nantes – with Algam Enterprise offices and showrooms in Paris' 11th arrondissement.

“We are very proud to start this promising partnership with ZeeVee, representing for us a unique opportunity to reinforce our commitment to excellence and innovation in the audiovisual industry,” said Benjamin Garnier, managing director, Algam.

“We look forward to collaborating with ZeeVee and offering our customers advanced AVoIP solutions that meet their needs in terms of performance, reliability and flexibility. The transport of video streams is essential and ZeeVee develops high-quality communication systems that meet the most demanding specifications with very low latency and without compromising image quality.”

Algam Enterprise will carry ZeeVee's complete line of AVoIP and SDVoE products including its popular ZyPerUHD60 1Gb and ZyPer4K 10Gb encoders and decoders, as well as its award-winning ZyPer Management Platform (ZMP). The ZMP software helps make AVoIP installations, management and operation easy. Its AV integration partners will also benefit from ZeeVee's proactive training resources.

"In France and throughout its geographical markets, Algam Enterprise is known for its high quality products and hands-on, high-touch support of its clients. That's a real match for ZeeVee and our focus on supporting clients pre-sale, during installation and post-sale," said Jan-Arne Rosenstein, managing director, ZeeVee Europe, GmbH. "Its specialization in event, corporate, administration, education, hospitality and entertainment markets maps well against ZeeVee's client and application expertise."
