

Leclanché Consolidates Debt with a Single Lender and Simplifies Debt Structure

FEFAM agrees to purchase outstanding debt from other third-party investors and to extend its maturity to 31 March 2020.

YVERDON LES BAINS, Switzerland, 17 July 2018: Leclanché SA (SIX: LECN), one of the world's leading energy storage solution companies, today announces that it has agreed with certain of its investors, including its largest shareholder FEFAM¹, to restructure and simplify its debt structure.

FEFAM has purchased certain outstanding debt due on 30 June 2018 from third party investors thereby simplifying Leclanché's lender base and agreed to postpone the maturity of the purchased debt to 31 March 2020.

This follows FEFAM's existing plans, as announced on 25 June 2018, to convert CH 24 million of debt owed by Leclanché to FEFAM into equity in order to help strengthen the balance sheet of the Company, subject to the approval by the Swiss Takeover Board and completion of the due process of capital increase. It is contemplated that after the conversion further steps shall be taken to improve the balance sheet situation of the Company.

Last week, Leclanché announced the establishment of a major new Joint Venture with Exide Industries, India's largest battery manufacturer, to build lithium-ion batteries and energy storage solutions in India for the Indian market. This is an important milestone for the Company and highlights that the opportunity for Leclanché is now.

¹FEFAM means: AM INVESTMENT SCA, SICAV-SIF - Liquid Assets Sub-Fund, together with FINEXIS EQUITY FUND - Renewable Energy Sub-Fund, FINEXIS EQUITY FUND - Multi Asset Strategy Sub-Fund, FINEXIS EQUITY FUND - E Money Strategies Sub-Fund (also called Energy Storage Invest) and, all these funds being in aggregate the main shareholder of Leclanché, hereunder referred to as "FEFAM".

About Leclanché

Headquartered in Switzerland, Leclanché SA is a leading provider of high quality energy storage solutions designed to accelerate our progress towards a clean energy future.

Leclanché's history and heritage is rooted in over 100 years of battery and energy storage innovation and the Company is a trusted provider of energy storage solutions globally. This coupled with the Company's culture of German engineering and Swiss precision and quality, continues to make Leclanché the partner of choice for both disruptors, established companies and governments who are pioneering positive changes in how energy is produced, distributed and consumed around the world.

The energy transition is being driven primarily by changes in the management of our electricity networks and the electrification of transport, and these two end markets form the backbone of our strategy and business model. Leclanché is at the heart of the convergence of the electrification of transport and the changes in the distribution network.

Leclanché is the only listed pure play energy storage company in the world, organised along three business units: stationary storage solutions, etransport solutions and specialty batteries systems. Leclanché is listed on the Swiss Stock Exchange (SIX: LECN).
