

Hotel guestrooms, public space, restaurant, bar, terrace and meeting spaces all fully renovated, restored and ready for guests

NAPA, Calif. (March 2, 2015)– After a temporary closure to repair damages sustained during the America Canyon earthquake last August, Andaz Napa announced today that it has resumed full hotel operation and is ready for guests. The hotel's 141 guestrooms and amenities, including its Andaz Farmers Table signature restaurant, Mercantile Social Bar, meeting and event space, and outdoor terrace with fire pits, are fully renovated and restored.

"We are so happy to welcome travelers back to the fully restored Andaz Napa from both near and far to provide inspiring experiences and a taste of Napa's local culture," said Greg Nomura, general manager of Andaz Napa. "I want to specifically thank the Napa community and our Andaz guests who have been incredibly supportive throughout this entire process. We are thrilled to re-open our doors and can't wait to host our guests, just in time for the arrival of Spring, which is a truly beautiful time of year here in Napa."

Known for distinctive and friendly service, Andaz Napa provides an uncomplicated and unique guest experience in a social yet casual hotel environment. Located in the heart of California wine country, Andaz Napa is centrally located in Napa's revitalized "West End," providing an ideal setting for visitors to explore wine country, with convenient proximity to Napa's premier tasting rooms, gourmet dining, shopping and the famed Oxbow Public Market.

"Our location in the epicenter of downtown Napa creates a welcoming destination for guests and locals to enjoy Andaz's fully renovated, stylish, and well-appointed guest rooms, along with a rustic epicurean experience in a vibrant wine country setting," said Nomura.
