

Expansion plans include the introduction of the Hyatt Centric brand to the Middle East and the return of a Hyatt-branded hotel to Kuwait

CHICAGO (April 25, 2017) – Hyatt Hotels Corporation (NYSE: H) announced plans to expand Hyatt’s brand footprint in the Middle East and Gulf Cooperation Council (GCC) with the signing of management agreements by a Hyatt affiliate for 14 Hyatt-branded hotels across the Park Hyatt, Grand Hyatt, Hyatt Regency, Hyatt Centric, Hyatt Place, and Hyatt House brands. There are currently 14 Hyatt-branded hotels open in the Middle East and GCC, and the expected openings of these 14 Hyatt-branded hotels would double Hyatt’s brand presence in the region within the next few years.

“We believe the new agreements being announced today, along with the previously announced properties under development, demonstrate growing confidence among owners and developers in the strength of Hyatt-branded hotels in the Middle East and GCC,” said Peter Norman, senior vice president of development with responsibility for the Europe, Africa and Middle East and Southwest Asia regions for Hyatt. “Today’s announcement marks a significant milestone for Hyatt – the introduction of the Hyatt Centric brand to the Middle East. The growth opportunity in this region is a testament to the global appeal of Hyatt’s entire brand portfolio as it continues to expand worldwide and offer more choices to our guests.”

Park Hyatt

Park Hyatt Riyadh will be located on King Fahd Road in the Olaya District in the city of Riyadh. The hotel will be situated near the Kingdom Center and the Al Faisaliah Center. The 275-room hotel, designed by Skidmore, Owings & Merrill LLP, will serve guests with highly personalized service; renowned art and design; a profound reverence for culture; and exceptional food. Additional features will include three restaurants, a lounge and 15,600 square feet (1,450 square meters) of meeting and event space, including a 10,760-square-foot (1,000-square-meter) ballroom and a spa and fitness center.

Park Hyatt Doha will offer a new, personalized luxury experience to the dynamic city of Doha. As the second Hyatt-branded property in Qatar, Park Hyatt Doha will feature 181 guestrooms and suites, two restaurants and a terrace lounge. In addition to more than 21,520 square feet (2,000 square meters) of meeting and event space, the hotel will offer more than 18,800 square feet (1,750 square meters) of recreation and leisure facilities, including a pool, spa and fitness center.

Grand Hyatt

Grand Hyatt Kuwait will be meticulously designed to exemplify the Grand Hyatt brand’s signature level of grandeur with an abundance of options for creating spectacular experiences. The hotel will be an integral part of 360 MALL, an iconic premier luxury shopping destination that integrates retail, leisure and entertainment under one roof. The 261-room hotel will be located seven miles from downtown on 6th Ring Road and will be within close proximity to various embassies, government ministries and the Kuwait International Airport. Grand Hyatt Kuwait will feature 261 guestrooms, four dining options and first class meeting and events facilities that will cater to government, business and social events in the city. As with all Grand Hyatt hotels, this new development will offer guests a sophisticated environment, based on innovative design and architecture complementing Kuwait’s unique culture.

Grand Hyatt Abu Dhabi Hotel and Residences Emirates Pearl will be centrally located in the heart of Abu Dhabi. Destined to be iconic, the 47-story hotel will be located on the southwest end of the Coastal Boulevard in the prestigious Ras Al Akhdar district of central Abu Dhabi. The hotel will feature 368 guestrooms, 60 fully furnished service apartments, four restaurants, a lounge, two bars, extensive meeting facilities, and a sophisticated spa and fitness center. The hotel will be designed by Dennis Lems Architects Associates, with interiors by MKV Design of London.

FORWARD-LOOKING STATEMENTS

Forward-Looking Statements in this press release, which are not historical facts, are forward-looking statements within the meaning of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. Our actual results, performance or achievements may differ materially from those expressed or implied by these forward-looking statements. In some cases, you can identify forward-looking statements by the use of words such as “may,” “could,” “expect,” “intend,” “plan,” “seek,” “anticipate,” “believe,” “estimate,” “predict,” “potential,” “continue,” “likely,” “will,” “would” and variations of these terms and similar expressions, or the negative of these terms or similar expressions. Such forward-looking statements are necessarily based upon estimates and assumptions that, while considered reasonable by us and our management, are inherently uncertain. Factors that may cause our actual results, performance or achievements to differ materially from current expectations include, among others, the rate and pace of economic recovery following economic downturns; levels of spending in business and leisure segments as well as consumer confidence; declines in occupancy and average daily rate; the financial condition of, and our relationships with, third-party property owners, franchisees and hospitality venture partners; the possible inability of third-party owners, franchisees or development partners to access the capital necessary to fund current operations or implement our plans for growth; risks associated with potential acquisitions and dispositions and the introduction of new brand concepts; changes in the competitive environment in our industry, including as a result of industry consolidation, and the markets where we operate; general volatility of the capital markets and our ability to access such markets; and other risks discussed in the Company's filings with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission, including our Annual Report on Form 10-K, which filings are available from the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission. These factors are not necessarily all of the important factors that could cause our actual results, performance or achievements to differ materially from those expressed in or implied by any of our forward-looking statements. We caution you not to place undue reliance on any forward-looking statements, which are made only as of the date of this press release. We undertake no obligation to update publicly any of these forward-looking statements to reflect actual results, new information or future events, changes in assumptions or changes in other factors affecting forward-looking statements, except to the extent required by applicable law. If we update one or more forward-looking statements, no inference should be drawn that we will make additional updates with respect to those or other forward-looking statements.
