

91-room Hyatt House hotel located in Niseko in the heart of Hokkaido

CHICAGO (December 16, 2018) – Hyatt House Niseko celebrated its opening today. Owned by Lime Tree Capital, the new, upscale extended stay hotel is conveniently located in the heart of Niseko Ski Country and will provide guests the service and convenience of hotel living with the casual comforts of home.

“The Hyatt House brand is everything the name represents – a welcoming and warm environment that encourages guests to live like residents. We want each and every guest who comes through our doors to feel that they can let their real-life routines roll on, even when they’re on the road,” said General Manager Jake McHugh. “Whether guests are visiting for a short trip or an extended stay, we know Hyatt House Niseko is the perfect place to offer a personalized hotel experience that will make people feel right at home.”

Surrounded by pristine mountains in the heart of the village of Hirafu, Hyatt House Niseko is just minutes from some of the best skiing in Japan. A complimentary shuttle runs throughout the ski season. During Niseko’s summer months season, guests can enjoy the surrounding rivers and forests, which offer great hiking and cycling. A bohemian art gallery scene is also rapidly growing with over a dozen galleries represented in the surrounding area.

Hyatt House Niseko offers:
