

‘Hyatt Road Trip’ Promotion Offers Guests Gas Credit at Washington D.C. Area and Florida Properties

□ As summer approaches and vacation travel heats up, Hyatt properties in the Washington D.C. area and Florida will provide travelers the opportunity to take a road trip on Hyatt. Beginning April 21, a $25 ‘Hyatt Road Trip’ credit will be applied to guest’s room bills upon check out. With gas prices increasing each day, Hyatt is giving guests something back for making the trip to participating properties.

From April 21 through September 30, 2003, at participating Florida or Washington D.C. area hotels and resorts, Hyatt guests paying an eligible rate, staying a minimum of two nights and requesting offer code DRIVE will receive a $25 ‘Hyatt Road Trip’ credit. The offer is valid seven days a week and can be paired with most of Hyatt’s already discounted promotional rates including AAA rates, senior citizen rates, packages, as well as promotional rates available on Hyatt.com.

“In addition to the exquisite lodging experience Hyatt guests have come to expect, they will be rewarded with a $25 ‘Hyatt Road Trip’ credit when they choose to stay with us,” said Victor Lopez, divisional vice president, Hyatt Hotels Corporation. “The offer can be coupled with most of our excellent promotional room rates at participating Florida and Washington D.C. hotels and resorts and provides another way to economize travel.”

Hyatt guests can take advantage of this offer at 18 hotels and resorts in Washington DC, Bethesda, Arlington, Crystal City, Baltimore and Maryland’s Eastern Shore; as well as at most of Hyatt’s Florida properties including locations in Key West, Miami, Bonita Springs, Orlando, Sarasota and Tampa.

Guests can book the ‘Hyatt Road Trip’ promotion by calling 800-233-1234, through www.hyatt.com or by contacting their travel agent. Please cite offer code DRIVE to receive the $25 ‘Hyatt Road Trip’ credit.

Currently, there are 207 Hyatt hotels and resorts around the world. Hyatt Corporation and its affiliates manage, franchise or operate 123 hotels and resorts in the U.S., Canada and the Caribbean.
