

Park Hyatt Hotels Unveils New Wedding and Anniversary Promotion

December 5, 2005 – Park Hyatt Hotels is offering soon-to-be newlyweds a special proposal that will make them swoon – celebrate their wedding at a Park Hyatt, and the first anniversary (or a romantic weekend getaway) is on the hotel – at any Park Hyatt or Hyatt Resort worldwide.

The anniversary offer includes a two night stay at any of the 24 Park Hyatts or 38 Hyatt Resorts worldwide. This offer is valid for weddings booked after December 15, 2005 and held prior to June 31, 2007. Visit www.parkhyattweddings.com for additional information.

Distinguished among the finest hotels in the world, Park Hyatt promises a superior wedding venue. At Park Hyatt Tokyo, weddings are customized for each bride and groom to create an exquisite and meaningful day. In addition to having a personal wedding coordinator, the chef works with the couple to design a one-of-a-kind menu that reflects their interests and backgrounds. For example, if the grandfather of the bride is a rice farmer, she can request that the hotel use his rice for the menu, or if she loves cherry blossoms, the hotel will create a signature cherry blossom cocktail to be served with dessert. Attention to detail and unique service is also on the menu at Park Hyatt Chicago, where the hotel can arrange for its BMW house car (the only house car in Chicago) to chauffeur the bride to her appointments in the city and to the ceremony.

A year after the exchange of vows, couples can fall in love all over again at another elegant Park Hyatt or Hyatt Resort. The choices are plentiful – couples can always have Paris, a destination synonymous with glamour and romance; or opt for lush tropical Kauai where dazzling sunsets over the Pacific Ocean are always in style. Wherever they go, guests can be sure that Park Hyatt Hotels and Resorts is a standout in its locale, with incomparable architecture and design, beautifully appointed guestrooms and suites, first-class amenities and facilities, state-of-the-art spas, and creative, award-winning cuisine.
