

‘GHT KAZOKU’ and ‘GHT Freedom’

Tokyo, March 27, 2007– Grand Hyatt Tokyo introduces two new accommodation packages that cater to both families and guests who want to spend quality time alone. ‘GHT KAZOKU’ is a special package for families that offers two Grand Rooms, with one room at a discounted price. ‘GHT Freedom’ is designed for single guests, allowing them to enjoy their time at Grand Hyatt Tokyo as they please.

The ‘GHT KAZOKU’ is a special package perfect for families requiring two rooms and guests who want to spend quality time with their family members. The package will be available during Golden Week as well as during the summer vacation period. Package benefit include a 20% discount for a dinner in The French Kitchen Brasserie & Bar, a stylish French Brasserie located on the second floor of Grand Hyatt Tokyo, that offers delicious meals made from fresh, seasonal ingredients; and a choice of either a bottle of wine, children’s amenity or a seasonal tart. This is a perfect plan for families to gather and enjoy a memorable time at Roppongi Hills.

Grand Hyatt Tokyo has designed the unique ‘GHT Freedom’ package for guests who are looking to spend quality time in luxury on their own, away from the hustle and bustle of their daily life. This offer is extended from April to December 2007.

Various benefits include a one-night stay for one in a contemporary and luxuriously designed 42 sq m Grand Room , featuring the latest state-of-the-art equipment. Guests will have the choice of selected options such as a dinner at The French Kitchen Brasserie & Bar with a 20% discount, a room service meal upon check-in and a wine and cheese plate. Tailored to the individuals needs, this plan is perfect for the guest who is looking to spend quality time freely and alone.
