

The best hotel in San Francisco's #1 destination

(March 28, 2007 San Francisco, CA) As the best hotel in San Francisco's #1 destination, the newly renovated Hyatt at Fisherman's Wharf recently introduced specialty room packages for 2007.

Leading off is the property's "Home Run Package," which has been designed with baseball fans in mind. With easy access to the San Francisco Giant's home turf, via the city's historic FLine trolleys, fans will enjoy a newly renovated guest room for two; choice of either domestic beer or root beer and peanuts as a welcome amenity; 50% discount for any appetizer in the city's "Best Sports Bar," Knuckles Historic Sports Bar & Grill, located at the hotel; two allday MUNI passes, which include access on the FLine trolleys and cable cars; and complimentary daily parking for one car. Rates start at $229 per night.

The most convenient of the hotel's packages is the "Wharf Parking Package," which includes overnight accommodations for up to two adult guests, full American breakfast for each adult registered to the room and valet parking for one car. Rates start at $209 per night.

Popular amongst those who enjoy added values, the "Shopping Package" includes overnight accommodations for up to two adult guests, full American breakfast for each adult registered to the room, one shopping tote per person with exclusive discounts at local establishments, H2O spa amenities, slippers, mints, lip balm, hand sanitizer, bottled water and late checkout of 2:00 p.m. Rates start at $229 per night.

As one of the world's most romantic cities, couples visiting San Francisco will enjoy the hotel's "Romance Package," which includes overnight accommodations for two adult guests; choice of full American breakfast for inroom dining or in Knuckles; sparkling wine; and chocolate covered strawberries. Rates start at $209 per night.

The most basic of the offerings is the "Rise and Shine Package," including overnight accommodations for up to two adult guests and two full American breakfast coupons to Knuckles for each adult registered to the room. Rates start at $184 per night.
