

Hyatt Newsroom

- Hyatt International (EAME) LLC and Sozidanije LLC have announced that Hyatt has signed a preliminary agreement to operate the new 221-room Hyatt Regency Dushanbe. The hotel will be Hyatt's first property in Dushanbe, the capital of Tajikistan.

Located in the city centre, on the grounds of City Park and adjacent to Lake Komsomol, Hyatt Regency Dushanbe has been designed by renowned architects NBBJ of Seattle in conjunction with HAS Architects Ltd. of Istanbul. In keeping with the Hyatt Regency concept and together with the internationally acclaimed Interior Designer BBGM (Brennan Beer Gorman Monk Interiors), the hotel will reflect the city's flavour in the design of the 221 generously sized rooms and suites. In addition, all rooms will offer the latest contemporary requirements of modern business and leisure travellers. For added privacy the hotel will offer Regency Club accommodation, providing the executive traveller with private access to a boardroom and the Regency Club lounge.

Hyatt Regency Dushanbe will include over 1,400 square metres of conference and banqueting space, suitable for accommodating a large variety of meeting requirements, from discrete board meetings to large banquets and State functions. The hotel will also feature a variety of food & beverage outlets including one restaurant, a lobby lounge and bar. Other facilities will include an extensive Spa, Health and Fitness Centre, pool and car parking space.
