

Effective 1st October 2007, Century Hyatt Tokyo will be renamed Hyatt Regency Tokyo.

□ The hotel, which opened in September 1980, is the longest established Hyatt property in Japan, and is widely recognized for its reputation, standards of service excellence and attention to detail. The renaming of the hotel as Hyatt Regency Tokyo will align the property with Hyatt International's portfolio of branded hotels. The property will also be an excellent addition to the Hyatt Regency network and strengthen Hyatt's presence in Japan, which currently includes eight properties across the country, namely in Fukuoka, Hakone, Kyoto and Osaka, in addition to the inimitable Park Hyatt Tokyo and Grand Hyatt Tokyo in the country's capital city.
