

The best hotel in San Francisco's #1 destination

□ (July 6, 2007 San Francisco, CA) As the best hotel in San Francisco's #1 destination, the newly renovated Hyatt at Fisherman's Wharf is the ideal property for business travelers that take a different approach to their out of office ventures.

As an alternative to typical downtown accommodations, Hyatt at Fisherman's Wharf provides business travelers with the option to stay in San Francisco's #1 destination, amidst all the action and after work nightlife, which is noticeably lacking in other business districts. Located only minutes from the city's Financial District, free car service is also offered to get business travelers to downtown meetings and appointments.

Additionally, the property caters to those who prefer to optimize their business travel by offering unique amenities and services as well as a local San Francisco approach to hospitality. The hotel features 313 newly renovated and spacious guest rooms boasting the plush, new Grand Bed with pillowtop mattresses; multifunction workstation with ergonomic chair; and luxurious bath with deluxe amenities. Guest services and amenities include WiFi service throughout the hotel; express checkin kiosk; iHomes in all guest rooms; Fastboard complimentary printing of airline boarding pass; 24hour automated business center; complimentary transportation to the Financial District; newly renovated 24hour StayFit @ Hyatt Fitness Center, featuring new equipment by LifeFitness, with individual TV monitors and headphones; outdoor heated pool and Jacuzzi; and pool tables as well as 28 flat screen TVs (some in HD) at Knuckles.

Dining options on property range from Knuckles Historic Sports Bar & Grill, which was voted "Best Sports Bar in San Francisco," as well as room service, which is offered from 6:00 a.m. to 11:00 p.m. Within walking distance of the hotel, there is a wide range of restaurants and clubs that stay open late to accommodate those who want to incorporate evening amusements into their business trip.

Conveniently located at 555 North Point Street, across the street from the Mason/Powell Cable Car line, nearby attractions include Alcatraz, Pier 39, The Cannery, Fisherman's Wharf, Golden Gate Bridge, Bay Cruises, Coit Tower, Lombard Street, Ghirardelli Square, Aquarium of the Bay and North Beach.
