

□ TORONTO, ONTARIO (March 3, 2009)– Today, the new Hyatt Regency Toronto On King celebrates the official completion of the hotel with a Ribbon Cutting Ceremony. The city's newest upscale hotel features 394 guestrooms and suites each offering the city's most incredible guestroom views of Toronto's skyline.

Guests can enjoy the stylish, innovative rooms most with 42" flat screen televisions, multi-media interface Jackboxes, iHome™ docking stations, Hyatt's signature Grand Bed™, and spa inspired washrooms including massaging shower heads and luxurious Portico bath amenities.

Hyatt Regency Toronto is home to those seeking the city's most fashionable new hotel. This chic property features a stunning VIP Floor, four decadent Maxx Air Bubble Jet Bathtub Suites, twenty-three deluxe suites, one Producer's Suite and a breathtaking Premiere Suite. The suites offer the most exhilarating views of the city.

Designed by Toronto's Hirschberg Designs, each guestroom exudes sophistication and style. The use of space is precise and well appointed. The furnishings and decor are avant-garde and sexy with shades of grey, white and red accents. The urban style is carried throughout the hotel including all the public areas. A common theme of light, water and fire are showcased in the lobby, the restaurant and the bar. King Street Social Kitchen/Bar, the hotel's new restaurant is located on the lower level with King Street access. This stylish restaurant carries a strong social element with its communal dining, and kitchen forward concept. It also has two private dining rooms and a screening room. The hotel's showpiece might arguably be between King Street Social Kitchen and Bar and the ultra chic Regency Lounge, featuring panoramic views, an outdoor rooftop patio with Ipe wood decking and a Zen-style outdoor fire pit. With 25,000 square feet of meeting and conference space, the hotel caters to both Toronto's social elite and business community. "We are very pleased to be expanding Hyatt's Canadian portfolio, and having a strong presence in Toronto has been a priority to the company for quite some time," said Sulynn Jew, general manager, Hyatt Regency Toronto On King. "With the new Hyatt Regency Toronto, we are thrilled to offer world class service and amenities our guests have come to expect from Hyatt."
