

$7 Million Upgrade Combines Modern Design and High Technology

□ MORRISTOWN, NJ—APRIL 13, 2009—Hyatt Morristown recently began a $7 million guestroom renovation. Scheduled for completion in November 2009, the renovation will include all 256 guestrooms, including suites and corridors on all 14 floors of the hotel.

Located in Morristown's urban center, the new rooms are designed with an eye towards modern luxury, as seen in New York City. The scope of the renovation will include all architectural finishes and fixtures, as well as custom furniture items, including seating, window treatments, lighting, artwork, floor finishes, bedding and accessories. The new color scheme is a layering of earth tones, accented with deep chocolate and leaf green. Guest bathrooms will be upgraded into a new contemporary scheme with plank-like tile flooring, a wood vanity with stone top, generous lighting and updated fixtures,

The new guestrooms will also include a built-in wall-to-wall desk along the window wall, with enclosed refrigerator cabinet and guest storage area. The Hyatt Grand Bed features a sleek, understated top-of-bed design with striped throw pillows and all-cotton fiber bed scarf. The focal point of the room is a walnut TV wall panel incorporating a new flat screen TV and cantilevered set of drawers. An Eames-style lounge chair with ottoman is custom-sized to compliment the room's Loft scheme.

"These enhancements will introduce entirely new level of design to Hyatt Morristown that deliver an unparalleled combination of functionality and comfort," said Tom Blundell, General Manager, Hyatt Morristown. "Whether guests are visiting Morristown for business or pleasure, they can unwind with all of the contemporary design and amenities today's travelers crave most."

Hyatt Morristown offers over 31,000 square feet of meeting space, including 4 ballrooms. Two dining options are available for guests including Eclectic Grill and Qube Lounge. Hyatt Morristown is connected to Headquarters Plaza in downtown Morristown, adjacent to a Cineplex offering 10 movie theaters.
