

Tuscan-Style Hotel in Heart of Sonoma Wine Country Appeals to Business and Leisure Travelers

□ Santa Rosa, CA (April 15, 2009) – Hyatt Vineyard Creek Hotel & Spa recently completed a multi-million dollar renovation of its lobby, restaurants, guestrooms and meeting space. The AAA Four Diamond award -winning hotel is located in the heart of Sonoma Wine Country, just north of San Francisco, about 20 minutes from over 200 area wineries

The newly refurbished hotel features a large stone porte cache at the entry lined with cedars and flowers. A new lobby design and furnishings compliment the large stone fireplace. The upscale full-service lobby bar features select wines from the region, spirits and appetizers. An interior Tuscan Courtyard houses a 10' fire-pit filled with red crystals and is surrounded by casual seating for beautiful wine country nights, perfect for sipping wine from the lobby bar. The Brasserie Restaurant has been completely remodeled to include an elegant show kitchen, and offers an outdoor patio with stone fireplace seating 50.

The new guestrooms at Hyatt Vineyard Creek Hotel & Spa offer a contemporary color palette of earth tones. All rooms feature a large high-definition flat screen television, with many channels in high-definition for guests' viewing pleasure. With over 15,000 square feet of meeting space, all meetings rooms and pre-function space has been upgraded with new paint and carpeting, new lighting, Wi-Fi and Wireless Internet access is also available. Many rooms open directly to outside gardens and patios.

The hotel's Vineyard Creek Spa has also received a full renovation, as well as the addition of couples massage room and private manicure and pedicure room. The spa specializes in grape seed oils and lavender treatments harvested from wine country.

Hyatt Vineyard Creek Hotel & Spa is owned and managed by Noble Investment Group, based in Atlanta, Ga. Noble also manages the operation of three other full service Hyatt hotels in the U.S., as well as other nationally branded full and limited service brands.
