

Bangkok, 8 November 2011 – Grand Hyatt Erawan Bangkok is open for business and central is functioning normally. 's international and domestic airports, and mass transportation systems, such as the BTS SkyTrain and MRT subway, are all operating normally. Only has been closed and all domestic flights that will arrive or depart from this airport are now transferred to instead.

To avoid any inconvenience in terms of road accessibility to and from the hotel caused by flooding, we recommend that guests use the BTS SkyTrain as well as the Airport Link Train for travelling to and from the airport.

The management and employees of Grand Hyatt Erawan Bangkok would like to express their deep sorrow and sympathy for all flood victims.

The management of the hotel will continue to monitor the situation and will update guests with any further development as it unfolds.

For more information, guests may contact a Hyatt reservations center. From the U.S. and Canada, contact 1-800-233-1234.

###

For further information:

Grand Hyatt Erawan Bangkok
66 2254 1234
bangkok.grand@hyatt.com

<https://stage.mediaroom.com/hyatt2/2011-11-11-Update-on-Flooding-Situation-in-Bangkok>