

245-room Hyatt Place hotel opens in Guangxi Province, Southwest China

CHICAGO (April 30, 2019) – Hyatt Place Liuzhou is officially open, marking the debut of the brand in Guangxi Zhuang Autonomous Region in Southwest China. The hotel features the Hyatt Place brand's intuitive design, casual atmosphere and practical amenities such as free Wi-Fi.

Liuzhou is the second largest city in Guangxi with over 2000 years' history and culture, and a growing industrial center and transportation hub in the region. Located on the banks of the winding Liu River, the landscape around Liuzhou is a mix of rolling hills, mountain peaks, caves and karst scenery, an ideal base for exploring the minority villages in the area.

Sitting on top of the 249-meter Poly International Center, the highest building in the city, Hyatt Place Liuzhou offers picturesque views of Liu River in all its guestrooms. The hotel enjoys convenient access to the nearby commercial center, entertainment complex and tourist attractions, including Yaobu Ancient Town and Liu River Night Cruise. The hotel is also in close proximity to Liuzhou Bailian Airport and Liuzhou Railway Station in about 40- and 18-minute drives respectively, providing both business and leisure travelers with seamless experience to get most of their travels.

"As Liuzhou continues to grow as a key industrial center in the region, we are excited to add to the momentum by introducing the first Hyatt Place hotel to the city," said General Manager, Jack Hou. "With our thoughtfully designed social spaces and guestrooms with separate working and sleeping areas, our multi-tasking guests can easily accomplish what they need to do while on the road. Plus, the hotel's signature breakfast is just the thing our guests need to take on the day."

Hyatt Place Liuzhou will offer:
