

136-room Hyatt Place hotel opens in the heart of Vacaville, Calif.

CHICAGO (August 14, 2019) – Hyatt Hotels Corporation (NYSE: H) announced today that Hyatt Place Vacaville, the first Hyatt Place hotel in the city of Vacaville, Calif. and in Solano County, is officially open. The new hotel features the Hyatt Place brand's intuitive design, casual atmosphere and practical amenities, such as a 24/7 fitness center and 24-hour food offerings. Locally owned by the Gill & Sidhu family, who also owns and manages the Sunrise Banquet Hall & Event Center, the new hotel is operated under Sunrise Palace Inc., and managed by Southern California based Evolution Hospitality.

Hyatt Place Vacaville offers 136 spacious guestrooms with separate spaces to sleep, work and play, as well as a Cozy Corner sofa-sleeper and free Wi-Fi throughout the hotel and guestrooms. A hot breakfast is available in the Gallery Kitchen daily and the 24/7 Gallery Menu & Market serves freshly prepared meals anytime, day or night. The on-site Coffee to Cocktails Bar features specialty coffees and premium beers, as well as wines and cocktails with happy hour specials. The Odds & Ends program, a unique program to the Hyatt Place brand, is for forgotten items that guests can buy, borrow or enjoy for free during their stay. The meeting space offers more than 525 square feet of flexible, high-tech meeting and function space and over 30,000 square feet of meeting room space is available adjacent to the hotel at the Sunrise Event & Banquet Center.

Vacaville is located in Solano County in Northern California. Sitting approximately 35 miles from Sacramento and 55 miles from San Francisco, it is part of the San Francisco Bay Area but also considered to be part of the Sacramento Valley. With a prime location off of Interstate Highway 80/Highway 505, the hotel is close to local wineries and 35 miles from famous Napa Valley wineries. Vacaville is home to premium outlet stores and the famous Nut Tree Plaza, as well as numerous restaurants that participate in farm-to-table dining experiences.

The hotel is 20 minutes from University of California, Davis, 45 minutes to University of California, Berkeley, and just 35 minutes from Sacramento State University. The hotel is located within minutes from a world-class ice hockey and ice skating rink, a baseball field and multiple soccer fields. Vacaville is in close proximity to well-known companies and attractions, including Genentech, Kaiser, State Fund, Anheuser Busch, Jelly Belly Factory, Six Flags Discovery Kingdom and the Western Railway Museum.

“As Vacaville continues to grow and thrive economically, we are excited to add to the momentum by welcoming the first Hyatt Place hotel to the Solano County area and the biggest hotel in Vacaville,” said General Manager Roy Galan. “With our smartly designed social spaces and guestrooms with separate work and sleep areas, our multi-tasking guests can easily accomplish what they need to do while on the road.”

“Vacaville is a vibrant city, filled with friendly people, great neighborhoods, and an ever-expanding list of great places to visit and things to do or see,” said Director of Sales Vanessa Talbert. “Our hotel is central to all of them and we are confident that the Hyatt Place Vacaville will exceed guest expectations and provide them with everything they need while visiting our area.”

About Sunrise Palace Inc.

Despite its scale, Sunrise is owned and operated as a traditional family business and their team members truly become an extension of the Sidhu/Gill family. From a small village in India, Pritam Sidhu came to America without any money or an education. Despite his humble beginnings, Sidhu had a big dream & a tenacious work ethic, from which stemmed an empire. Decades later, this dynamic family's inspiring journey of hard work and honesty continues to drive their success. Hyatt Place Vacaville is their first hotel, and it is their hope to propel forward into a lasting association with the Hyatt brand of hotels.
