

CHICAGO (November 18, 2021) – Hyatt Hotels Corporation \(NYSE: H\) today celebrated the opening of Hyatt Place Allentown / Lehigh Valley and Hyatt House Allentown / Lehigh Valley, the area's first dual-branded Hyatt Place and Hyatt House project. Situated on Route 222 (Fred Jandl Memorial Highway) near Hamilton Crossings, Dorney Park, and the new Air Products global headquarters, these new hotels offer guests an approachable yet elevated experience in a convenient location. The opening of these hotels thoughtfully expand the Hyatt Place and Hyatt House brands' footprint in a market that matters to guests and World of Hyatt members.

The dual-branded project features the Aster event center with 5,900 square feet of meeting and event space, expertly designed for weddings and catered events. The properties also boast extensive indoor and outdoor seating areas with a firepit and grilling area, sundeck, and outdoor dining areas. The ground-level offers a 24-hour fitness center, a 2,400 sq. ft. pool area, and the 24/7 H market with grab-and-go options. Westside Grill, the properties' onsite signature restaurant serving lunch and dinner daily features craft cocktails and exceptional steaks and seafood paired with intentional and personal service. A complimentary breakfast is also offered daily. The hotels were developed and are owned by the Jandl Land Company and operated by TKO Hospitality.

"We're excited for guests to enjoy our Hyatt Place and Hyatt House hotels in a prime Lehigh Valley location," said General Manager Scott Craver. "Our hotels offer an intuitive, modern design with spacious layout in each guestroom and a variety of accommodations - from separate areas to sleep and work at Hyatt Place Allentown / Lehigh Valley to the apartment-style suites with full kitchens at Hyatt House Allentown / Lehigh Valley. The unique benefit of offering both brands under one roof is that our guests can choose the space that fits their needs without compromising on location."

"It's a pleasure to be bringing the Hyatt Place and Hyatt House experience to the Lehigh Valley market with the opening of these exceptional properties," said David Jandl, owner, Jandl Land Company.

"This opening is a culmination of exceptional vision and hard work from many parties and is a testament to the standards of excellence we hold ourselves to with every undertaking," said Adam Jandl, vice president, Jandl Land Company.
