The hotel, designed by Avalon Collective of Singapore, offers a modern interpretation of Nanjing that inspires guests to express themselves through playful experiences that are deeply rooted in the local culture. Guest rooms as well as dining, meeting and social spaces nod to the city's vivid colors, from rich earth tones of the surrounding landscape to varying blue hues of the river and sky. Throughout the hotel, guests will also enjoy artistic expressions of local culture and landmarks.

Guestrooms and Suites

The hotel's 362 guestrooms and suites have been designed to provide well-traveled explorers with an inviting space to rest, work and reflect. The sleek, minimalist interiors blend simplicity with bold contemporary hues and locally inspired touches, creating a space that exudes modern chic. With unique sloped ceilings, the rooms have a loft-like feel, accentuated by full-height floor to ceiling windows that offer sweeping panoramic views of the vibrant cityscape or the majestic Yangtze River – with 270-degree views in the case of corner rooms and suites. Amenities include a complimentary minibar featuring locally sourced snacks and non-alcoholic beverages along with work desks equipped with a wireless charging station.

Drinking & Dining

Andaz Nanjing Hexi's two restaurant and bar concepts entice guests with distinct epicurean experiences. Located on the hotel's 6th floor, Tavern is the heartbeat of the property, housing a spacious dining room, bistro, bar and outdoor terrace. Offering a sophisticated and sociable atmosphere, the restaurant features an open kitchen where guests can observe skilled chefs prepare authentic local and regional Chinese cuisine. Bistro-style comfort food is also available, and guests can unwind with a selection of champagne, cocktails or local draft beer while enjoying the cosmopolitan energy of the city. Tavern also features four private dining rooms, each offering an intimate and meaningful setting ideal for exclusive gatherings and celebrations.

Situated on the 31st floor, Meet@ rooftop bar and restaurant offers an elevated dining experience with panoramic skyline views, making it the ideal spot for a memorable evening out. The menu features a selection of sharable grilled dishes, as well as a chef's table experience where the hotel's culinary and mixology teams pair courses and cocktails using local ingredients available on a seasonal basis. To complement their meal, guests can choose from an extensive collection of wines and spirits from around the globe, while enjoying live DJ sets and the option of booking a VIP room for a more personal and private experience.

This space can accommodate up to 260 guests for meetings, conventions, wedding banquets, and other social occasions with options to be divided into smaller function rooms for more intimate gatherings. For a unique and alfresco venue, Tavern's Outdoor Terrace offers a lush garden environment amid the high-rise skyline. Spanning over 10,700 square feet (1,000 square meters), the terrace boasts a waterscape, pavilions, a lawn and a dining area, providing an exquisite outdoor setting for creative events or a romantic wedding ceremony.
