

The 1,059-room family-friendly resort offers guests an enchanting backdrop of coconut palms and the natural beauty of Laguna Bavaro Reserve in the idyllic Cabeza de Toro region

CHICAGO (November 30, 2023) – Hyatt Hotels Corporation (NYSE: H) today announced the opening of Sunscape Coco Punta Cana, the newest addition to the Inclusive Collection, part of World of Hyatt. The newly remodeled 1,059-room family-friendly resort expands the Inclusive Collection's portfolio in the Dominican Republic to 15 resorts and marks the opening of the second Sunscape Resort & Spa branded property in the country.

Nestled along the pristine Bavaro Beach in the colorful town of Cabeza de Toro, Sunscape Coco Punta Cana is a paradise of fun and relaxation, with a fresh, contemporary design that complements the natural surroundings of bent coconut palms and the Laguna Bavaro Wildlife Reserve. Guests are immersed in warm hospitality from the moment they arrive, with glistening white sands, crystal clear waters and lush foliage awaiting just steps away.

"The opening of Sunscape Coco Punta Cana in the Dominican Republic presents an opportunity to bolster family-friendly, all-inclusive options in a diverse and vibrant market for travelers worldwide," says Gonzalo del Peón, Group President, Inclusive Collection Global Commercial. "The Dominican Republic continues to be a destination of immense importance to the Inclusive Collection, part of World of Hyatt, and this stunning backdrop offers a cost-conscious ideal setting for families seeking both relaxation and adventure."

Accommodations

Sunscape Coco Punta Cana offers spacious and comfortable accommodations for diverse guest preferences and needs. Along with a furnished balcony or terrace, most rooms afford full or partial views of the ocean. For those traveling with larger families, two-bedroom and three-bedroom suites offer spacious accommodations, including connecting rooms and amenities tailored for children. Each guestroom is designed with comfort in mind and offer conveniences such as a coffeemaker, toiletries, in-room mini-bar, and more.

For guests seeking an even further elevated experience, the Sun Club offers upgraded suites and a range of additional services including personalized check-in and check-out service, adults-only rooms, and more. Sun Club guests have access to the Sun Club Lounge, a private location for both families and adults, complete with separate food and beverage offerings. The guest experience may be further elevated with upgraded daily mini-bar service and premium bath products. Additionally, room service is available, and Sun Club guests have access to a dedicated beach area in both the adults-only and family sections.

Culinary Offerings

Sunscape Coco Punta Cana offers a diverse array of culinary offerings that cater to a wide range of tastes and preferences. With a total of 12 restaurants, there's something to please every palate in a variety of settings including à la carte, buffet, grab-and-go, and a café. À la carte restaurants serve favorites from around the world, including Italian, Asian, and authentic Amazonian cuisine, all with no reservations required.

Family-Friendly Amenities

Sunscape Coco Punta Cana offers a wide range of family-friendly offerings that make it the ideal destination for a memorable vacation for families. The resort boasts a dedicated Explorer's Club for Kids ages 3-12 while parents enjoy some well-deserved relaxation, including activities such as arts & crafts and sandcastle competitions. With a pristine beachfront location, families can enjoy water sports, on-site games, and daytime and nighttime entertainment, including beach volleyball, yoga lessons, or aqua aerobics. Sunscape Coco Punta Cana offers a blend of relaxation and excitement that makes it easy for families to cherish their time together in the Dominican Republic.
