"The end of the year usually means a plethora of great deals available for car shoppers, and this fall is no exception," said Alec Gutierrez, senior market analyst of automotive insights for Kelley Blue Book's KBB.com. "With the annual model-year change-over now in full swing at dealerships across the nation, these deals may not last. Consumers interested in snagging zero-percent financing should act quickly while there are still 2012 models available."

KBB.com's 10 Best Car Deals of the Month Sample Selection

2012 Toyota Camry LE

Totally redesigned for 2012, the Toyota Camry is the newest car on this month's list and remains the best-selling car in the country. Zero-percent financing isn't so common on newer models with such proven appeal, and that's why Camry takes the top spot this month.
