

Cognizant Named Adobe's 2018 Delivery Quality Partner of the Year

Cognizant Interactive Showcasing Expanded Relationship and New Digital Marketing Solutions at Adobe Summit in Las Vegas

LAS VEGAS, March 27, 2018 /PRNewswire/ -- Cognizant (Nasdaq: CTSH) today announced it has been named "2018 Delivery Quality Partner of the Year" by Adobe, the global leader in digital marketing solutions. The award was presented at Adobe Summit, the premier annual conference for digital marketing professionals now underway in Las Vegas.

Cognizant was recognized by Adobe for its commitment to exceptional customer service on joint deployments of large digital transformation projects for clients across industries.

Cognizant and Adobe have expanded their multi-year relationship in recent months through the Adobe Cognizant Experience (ACE) Program. ACE provides a framework for joint investment and development of industry-specific solutions that will initially be introduced in healthcare, life sciences and financial services.

Solutions being developed through the ACE collaboration -- and previewed at Adobe Summit -- include a healthcare-specific digital marketing platform with personalization for payers and providers; integrated functionality to support processes related to medical, legal and regulatory (MLR) compliance in the life sciences industry; and integration of Adobe Experience Cloud with banking applications to provide richer, more seamless experiences across a wide variety of consumer banking services.

"We are committed to partnering with clients to deliver experiences that matter – experiences that shift our clients' position in the market," said Donna Tutts, Senior Vice President, Cognizant. "Core to this commitment is execution excellence, delivering at the highest level of quality every time, which is why this recognition means so much to us."

"We are thrilled to honor Cognizant as the Delivery Quality Partner of the Year," said Jay Dettling, Vice President, Global Partners, Adobe. "The level of engagement between Adobe and Cognizant in our joint clients has been outstanding, and is evidence of the commitment we both have to drive transformative digital outcomes."

Cognizant is participating in Adobe Summit this year in both North America and Europe. Attendees can learn more about how Cognizant is reinventing the future of digital business at Booth 801 in the Community Pavilion in The Venetian, Las Vegas, and at Cognizant-sponsored breakout sessions:
