

Cognizant Selected to Collaborate on Launch of Dine Brands Global A.I. Innovation Foundry

Leveraging cutting-edge A.I. technologies, this collaboration aims to pioneer next-generation solutions in the restaurant industry

TEANECK, N.J., August 13, 2024 – Cognizant (NASDAQ: CTSH) has been selected by Dine Brands Global, Inc. (NYSE: DIN) to assist in the creation of its A.I. Innovation Foundry. Dine Brands is one of the world's largest full-service dining companies and parent company of Applebee's Neighborhood Grill + Bar®, Fuzzy's Taco Shop®, and IHOP® restaurants. Dine Brands' A.I. Innovation Foundry will incubate, develop, and test cutting-edge A.I. solutions.

"We are excited to work with Dine Brands to launch their A.I. Innovation Foundry. This collaboration promises to deliver cutting-edge A.I. technologies designed to be transformational for Dine Brands and its restaurant brands," said Anup Prasad, SVP & Head of Cognizant's Consumer Business Unit.

This collaboration demonstrates Dine Brands' commitment to explore A.I. technologies aimed at boosting productivity across its brands.

"Our A.I. Innovation Foundry is a pivotal milestone for us. It bridges technology and hospitality, empowering our brands with A.I. to meet strategic goals, support franchisees, and enhance the guest experience in restaurant," said Justin Skelton, Chief Information Officer of Dine Brands.

The recent developments in A.I. signify a shift in technology. As new use cases are continuously identified, tested, and deployed, this innovation is poised to significantly impact businesses by enhancing productivity, improving quality, and saving time.
