

Cognizant Names Maureen Breakiron-Evans to Board of Directors

Cognizant (NASDAQ: CTSB), a leading provider of consulting, technology, and business process outsourcing services, today announced that Maureen Breakiron-Evans has been elected to its Board of Directors and will serve on the Company's Audit Committee.

Francisco D'Souza, President and Chief Executive Officer of Cognizant, commented, "We are delighted to welcome Maureen Breakiron-Evans to Cognizant's Board of Directors. Maureen is a proven leader with deep financial knowledge and expertise. Her experience and strategic insight will be a valuable asset as Cognizant continues to expand our growth platform in the coming years."

Ms. Breakiron-Evans, age 55, served as Chief Financial Officer of Towers Perrin from January 2007 until April 2008, and as Vice President and General Auditor of CIGNA Corporation from February 2005 until October 2007, where she was responsible for managing the enterprise risk management and internal audit functions. Ms. Breakiron-Evans served as Executive Vice President and Chief Financial Officer at Inovant, LLC, which is Visa's captive technology development and transaction processing company, from 2001 to 2004. Prior to that, Ms. Breakiron-Evans held several positions at Transamerica Corporation in San Francisco including Vice President and General Auditor, Vice President of Control and Services, and President of Transamerica Business Technologies Corp. Ms. Breakiron-Evans began her career as a financial auditor, ultimately serving as an Audit Partner with Arthur Andersen & Co.

Ms. Breakiron-Evans received a BBA from Stetson University, an MBA from Harvard Business School, and an MLA from Stanford University. She is also a certified public accountant in the State of California.

With her election, Cognizant's Board of Directors now consists of eight directors, six of whom are independent under NASDAQ's rules.
