

M&T Bank Seeks Young Entrepreneurs

Bank partners with CBA and Ashoka in 'Banking on Youth' Competition

BUFFALO, N.Y.—The Consumer Bankers Association (CBA) Foundation, Ashoka's Youth Venture, M&T Bank and other sponsoring CBA member banks from across the country have launched the inaugural "Banking on Youth" competition. Together we are "Finding and Funding Young Changemakers" across the Nation.

Banking on Youth invites young people between the ages of 13 and 20 to submit a creative 90-second video and brief entry form to share their idea for an entrepreneurial venture that will directly benefit society. Submitted videos meeting the eligibility requirements will be uploaded to www.bankingonyouth.org to compete to win one of 54 $1,000 seed money prizes provided by sponsoring banks. M&T Bank is sponsoring 4 prizes designated for students in geographic regions served by the bank.

"Here's a chance for students in communities served by M&T Bank who like to use video and have good ideas to share. Our local students have a shot to win one of the $1,000 prizes M&T Bank is sponsoring, and possibly a chance to go to Washington, D.C. to compete for a bigger prize," said Richard S. Gold, executive vice president for mortgage, consumer lending and business banking at M&T Bank.

The top six entrants, chosen by the CBA Foundation and Ashoka's Youth Venture, will receive an all-expenses-paid trip to Washington, D.C. to compete in a "pitch-off" at the annual Youth Venture Summit in Washington, D.C. "Pitch-off" prizes include the Audience Choice Award of $5,000 and the Grand Prize of $15,000!

The application deadline is June 10, 2012. Regional winners of the $1,000 seed money prizes as well as the six national finalists will be announced June 28, 2012.

"Banking on Youth demonstrates how much of a difference local banks can make by seeding the ingenuity and initiative of young people," said Bill Drayton, Founder and CEO of Ashoka. "Each venture launched by young changemakers will touch the lives of at least 100 people, while preparing the young leaders for a lifelong path of success in school, work and life."

Competition information, including how to apply, can be found at www.bankingonyouth.org or contact Megan Murff, Vice President of the CBA Foundation at mmurff@cbanet.org.
