

Business Growing in Florham Park, N.J.

M&T Bank formally christened a new office in Florham Park, New Jersey with about 150 employees, customers and friends in early July.

The bank's commercial business continues to grow in the state. As of the end of 2014, the bank had a portfolio of $1.4 billion in New Jersey.

M&T now has 7 New Jersey offices providing commercial real estate, middle market and small business loans, commercial insurance, commercial leasing and dealer commercial services, residential mortgage, and private banking and wealth management services through our Wilmington Trust division.

Florham Park Mayor Mark Taylor and Morris County Chamber of Commerce President Paul Boudreau both stopped by to celebrate M&T's investment in the community.
