BUFFALO, N.Y.—For the third consecutive year, M&T Bank is presenting local not-for-profit organizations with a unique and exciting game-day experience during the 2018-19 Buffalo Bills season.

For each Bills' home game, M&T Bank will provide eight tickets in 'The Comfort Zone,' a private section within the M&T Club, to volunteers from 10 local not-for-profit organizations that contribute to the success and well-being of Western New York. "We are honored to share this one-of-a-kind stadium experience with dedicated and hard-working members of our community," said Shelley Drake, President of the M&T Charitable Foundation. "Together with the Buffalo Bills, it's our way to say thank you to the people and the organizations who are making a difference in the Buffalo community."
