

Nemours Children's Health Recognized as One of the 50 Most Community-Minded Employers in the Greater Philadelphia Region

[Wilmington, Del.] – For the 2nd consecutive year, Nemours Children's Health, Delaware has been named an honoree of The Civic 50 Greater Philadelphia by Philadelphia Foundation, in partnership with Points of Light and local partners. Since 2011, modeled after Points of Light's national program, the Civic 50 Greater Philadelphia has provided a standard for corporate citizenship and showcases how employers use their time, skills and resources to drive social impact in their communities and company.

"At Nemours Children's Health, we are working toward creating the healthiest generations of children," said Yvette Santiago, Director of Community Engagement, Nemours Children's Health, Delaware. "Our work in our respective communities has never been more important or necessary. We are going well beyond medicine by focusing on increasing access to health care and intentionally engaging with our respective communities to create the necessary impacts that will result in positive health outcomes for children and families in our local communities."

Nemours' community engagement program demonstrated exemplary civic engagement to receive this notable award. Nemours scored in the top 25% for its investment into its local community through 28 intentional partnerships resulting in over $328K of financial investments. In addition, Nemours Cares Closets were resourced to support the needs of its patients and families by providing essential food and baby supplies. Another key method of measurement is institutionalization, which Nemours scored in the top 50%, a direct result of the Nemours' policy allowing all associates to take one day off per year to volunteer in their community. In 2021, Nemours associates volunteered over 9,100 hours throughout the Delaware Valley through a variety of opportunities including health screenings, food packing and distribution events, community clean ups, community gardens, health literacy events, community baby showers and more.

"Philadelphia Foundation is proud to recognize Nemours Children's Health's outstanding civic engagement," said Pedro Ramos, President, and Chief Executive Officer of Philadelphia Foundation. "All of the 2022 honorees have demonstrated great passion and dedication to making a meaningful impact in the local communities they serve. It is this type of commitment that resonates throughout a region and sets the standard for corporate stewardship. We thank Nemours for their efforts and congratulate them on this exciting honor."

"Points of Light believes that corporate leadership and commitment to civic engagement is critical to strengthening communities, and The Civic 50 Greater Philadelphia honorees including Nemours Children's Health exemplify that," said Natalye Paquin, President and Chief Executive Officer of Points of Light. "Their inclusiveness and comprehensive approach to corporate citizenship, as well as their responsiveness to reflect, learn from each other and respond to community needs, make the Greater Philadelphia region a better place for all. We are so pleased to recognize them for taking their civic responsibility seriously, and for the role they play in shaping their communities."

The Civic 50 Greater Philadelphia honorees were officially recognized on Thursday, June 23rd, at a celebratory event at the AmerisourceBergen Corporate Headquarters located in Conshohocken, PA.

The Civic 50 Greater Philadelphia assessment is administered by True Impact, a company specializing in helping organizations maximize and measure their social and business value and consists of quantitative and multiple-choice questions that inform scoring process.
