SLING TV SECURES THIRD CONSECUTIVE WIN AS "BEST LIVE TV STREAMING SERVICE" IN TOM'S GUIDE AWARDS 2024

Providing Customers with More Choice and Customization

ENGLEWOOD, Colo., Oct. 8, 2024 – Sling TV, an EchoStar company (Nasdaq: SATS), known for its unparalleled flexibility and value, is named the "Best Live TV Streaming Service" for 2024 by Tom's Guide, marking the third year in a row the platform has taken home this prestigious title. Known for its unbeatable price, customizability and vast channel lineup, Sling TV continues to lead the industry as the go-to choice for cord-cutters seeking flexible, customized streaming solutions.

Tom's Guide praised Sling TV's exceptional affordability, versatility and extensive content offerings. Hundreds of channels are available across Sling TV and Sling Freestream's domestic, international and Latino services. Customers can enjoy top networks like CNN, ESPN, NFL Network and TNT through its base packages, Sling Orange and Sling Blue. The introduction of Sling Freestream, which offers over 600 channels for free, has further solidified Sling TV's position as a leader in the live streaming space.

"We're honored to be recognized once again by Tom's Guide," said Gary Schanman, executive vice president and group president, DISH Video Services. "This award underscores our commitment to offering a premium viewing experience that meets the diverse needs of our customers while keeping costs low."

Sling TV's consistent innovation and focus on consumer needs have helped it rise above the competition, offering the perfect balance of content, convenience and cost for consumers.
